CHAIR: NSIA AKUFFA BEA, Harlem Fight Back

PANELISTS:

ELOMBE BRATH, Patrice Lumumba Coalition

CARL DIX, Revolutionary Communist Party

AMIRI BARAKA, League of Revolutionary Struggle

ABDUL ALKALIMAT, TCB Publications

ISSUES: What was the significance of ALD 1972? How did it come about? Who was involved? / What influence did ALSC have? How does it compare with the Council on African Affairs? With the Free South Africa Movement led by Trans Africa? / How important was the Marxist-Nationalist debate sparked by the ALSC? / Were Nationalists/Pan Africanists defeated? How were they contributing? / Were Marxists defeated? How were they contributing? / What are the lessons from ALSC for the next few years? / What was the main error? And, how can it be avoided in the future?

A New African Liberation Movement must grow from the African American community through militant grassroots actions calling for support of South African and Namibian Liberation Movement's struggles, including armed struggle. This New African Liberation Support Movement should also recognize the organic links between African Liberation struggles and our African American Liberation struggle against racism and economic exploitation.

We need to build an anti-imperialist, grassroots based African Liberation Support Movement.

Black Folks in South Africa Must Be Free! Down with U.S. Imperialism Now!
