

BLACK STUDIES

THE INSTITUTE OF THE BLACK WORLD

WILL OFFER

SIX SEMINARS IN BLACK STUDIES

THIS FALL

- IBW 1. Lerone Bennett: BLACK RECONSTRUCTION IN AMERICA
(Limited to 15 students)
Time: Tuesday 2-5 P.M.
- IBW 2. Chester Davis: BUILDING BLACK CURRICULUM IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Time: Monday 6:30-9:30 P.M.
- IBW 3. Stephen Henderson: BLUES, SOUL AND BLACK IDENTITY
Time: Monday & Wednesday 2-3:45 P.M.
- IBW 4. Joyce Ladner: THE SOCIALIZATION OF THE BLACK CHILD
Time: Wednesday 6:30-9:30 P.M.
- IBW 5. William Strickland: RACISM AND AMERICAN SOCIAL ANALYSIS
Time: Thursday 2-5 P.M.
- IBW 6. Staff: Independent research in BLACK STUDIES
(Designed for seniors and graduate students working on honors papers and theses)

The Institute of the Black World is a Black Studies Research Center and a part of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center. It is temporarily located in the offices of the Martin Luther King Jr. Library-Documentation Project, 671 Beckwith Street, S.W.

All registration for the IBW Seminars will take place on Monday - Wednesday, September 15-17, at the Library Documentation Project, 9:00 A.M. to 5 P.M.

The Institute has recommended to AU Center Institutions that a minimum of three credits be allowed for each seminar. All AU Center students who meet the stated requirements are invited to register.